"Happy State Bank is very family oriented. They want you to be able to attend your kid's football and basketball games or school programs. Family First. All the time. Every time."
- Erica Reyes

Erica was born in Long Beach, California but found her way to Happy, Texas when she was 10 years old. Today, Erica is in charge of branch operations and consumer lending, where it all began - our Happy branch. She and her husband, Jesse, have been married for 20 years and have 3 children; Cameron, Dylan, and Emilie, and are expecting their first grandchild in May 2019.
