Eli Hernandez

Assistant Vice President
(806) 934-4292

"Faith and family are truly valued and cherished, for they are ingrained into our core values; this, in turn, creates a working environment and work family second to none."

- Eli Hernandez

Eli was raised in Tulia and graduated from Texas Tech University. Eli oversees the Dalhart office. He also makes agricultural, real estate and commercial loans. He and his wife, Maria, have one daughter, Jasmine, and enjoy the outdoors and traveling. Eli serves on the Cactus Nazarene Ministries Board of Directors and he and his family attend St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Dumas.

Eli Hernandez's Mac N' Cheese

- 1 (16oz) package elbow macaroni
- 3/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 2 (10.75oz) cans condensed cheddar cheese soup
- 2 scallions (thinly sliced)
- 2 cups milk
- 6 cups sharp cheddar cheese (shredded, with 1 cup reserved for garnish)
- 3 tablespoons butter (melted)
- 1 lb bacon (cooked & crumbled, with 1/4 cup reserved for garnish)
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Coat a 9x13 baking dish with cooking spray. Cook macaroni according to package directions; drain and place back in pot. Stir in soup, milk, cheese, butter, bacon, salt, and pepper; mix well. Pour into baking dish, sprinkle evenly with remaining cheese, bacon, and scallions. Bake at 350° for 35 to 40 minutes, or until heated through and bubbly.
